10 Case No. 4:23-cv-01007-JST (KAW)
11 DISCOVERY REFERRAL ORDER

12
13 The district judge has referred all discovery matters to the undersigned. All discovery
14 disputes must comply with the undersigned's standing order, available online at:
15 <https://cand.uscourts.gov/judges/westmore-kandis-a-kaw/>. The dispute procedures require lead
16 counsel for the parties to meet and confer in person or by video conference, and then submit a
17 joint letter addressing any unresolved disputes. The joint letter must comply with all requirements
18 in Paragraph 14 of the standing order, including using the required format and the limitations on 19 exhibits.

20 The joint letter must be e-filed under the Civil Events category of "Motions and Related
21 Filings > Motions – General > Discovery Letter Brief." (Judge Westmore's General Standing
22 Order ¶ 14(c).) If the joint letter is incorrectly filed, the parties risk the dispute going unresolved.

23 If a pending discovery dispute does not comply with this procedure, it may be terminated
24 and the parties ordered to refile a joint letter that complies with the standing order.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.
